

BRIXEY & MEYER

We know business operations have recently changed and this comes with new challenges. You don't have to address these on your own. Our Business Advisory experts can help!

We can help...

Analyze and identify trends and opportunities to make complex business decisions clearer

Assist with SBA and PPP as well as help identify savings levers in your business

Document any current initiatives that have been put on hold so you can get back to business

Standardize processes so that new hires can get up to speed quickly

Be your guide and offer an extra pair of hands to closely track critical metrics and processes

Assist with capacity or bottle-neck issues that are unsolved or taking too much time

Who we are...

- We are problem solvers - we work as a team and leverage our experience to make sure answers are focused and practical.
- We are diverse - our educations run across disciplines, our business backgrounds span a broad range of industries and we have worked with businesses ranging from small startups to Fortune 500 to non-profits
- We are empathetic - we understand the challenges you are facing and treat our clients' businesses as if they were our own. We want to help.